

Are there persistent issues that your current IT provider can never seem to resolve?

Is it easier to find work-arounds to problems rather than calling your IT provider?

Do you lack trust in them to get you back up and running after a catastrophe?

THE WAY IT IS SUPPOSED TO BE

NeoLore Networks Inc. is here to upgrade you to FIRST CLASS I.T. SUPPORT.

With First Class I.T. support, we guarantee to provide great, fast service at competitive rates to ensure you stay online, work efficiently and protect all security. Being a part of NeoLore means being onboard with a strong, knowledgeable team of technicians who speak your language and are ready to help you when you need it.

Don't just take it from us. Our long client retention proves that we have exceeded their expectations. Our average client has been retained with NeoLore Networks Inc. for a minimum of 3 years. Some for as long as 10 years!

You get all your data backed up and stored with us every 30 days. While you don't own the servers, with us you can sleep with a clear conscience. And it's nice to have top-notch protection of all your critical data.

This is "The Way I.T. is Supported To GO!"
